

Why a safety curtain?

When blowing down particles frequently fly backwards
- with risk for eye injury, etc.

The safety curtain comprises of an extra air flow, which changes the direction of particles that fly backwards. The safety curtain protects the user from personal injury.